ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Government Siddha Medical College, Palayamkottai is the first Siddha Medical College in the world established in October 1964, was a landmark event in the preservation and promotion of the ancient Siddha system of medicine, an Indian traditional healing practice with roots in South India.

This pioneering institution became a center of excellence, attracting students from across India interested in learning the holistic approaches of Siddha medicine. It also played a crucial role in standardizing practices, conducting research, and validating the efficacy of Siddha treatments, thereby gaining recognition and respect in the global medical community.

AIM OF THE CONFERENCE

To emphasize Evidence based Research in Siddha System of Medicine
